

American Program

O'Connor – Appalachia Waltz
Barber – Summer Music
Copland – Appalachian Spring
Copland – Hoe Down from Rodeo

This all-American program explores classics from 20th century American composers, evoking images of the vast beauty of nature, the blissful peace of a summer day, and the roots of the American fiddling tradition.

The music of this program ranges from energetic fiddling tunes present in Hoe Down to the more reflective Appalachia Waltz and opening of Appalachian Spring. The all-American flavor lends itself well to national holidays like Independence Day and Memorial Day, as well as to outdoor settings where the beauty of the American landscape can be further enhanced with music distinctly created to depict it. It can be paired with a tasting of wines produced in the United States, as well as with exhibits of American art work.
